KASD is incorporating Critical Race Theory in grades K-12

What is Critical Race Theory?

- Marxist inspired movement in social and political philosophy associated with the Harvard University Law School and other colleges began teaching this in the 1970's.
- Views history as a class struggle. Viewed as a history of oppression as opposed to noting any positive outcomes such as societies that survived, thrived, improved and progressed.
- CRT is a theoretical framework which view society as dominated by white supremacy and categorizes people as "privileged" or "oppressed" based on the color of their skin. CRT teaches kids that the most important thing about you is your race and the color of your skin. It does not recognize your behavior, your values, your environment or your character.
- Critical Race Theory begins with the assumption that racism occurs in all interactions.
- It teaches kids to hate America even though America has spent a lot of time, money and blood breaking free of racism in the past.
- CRT followers do not recognize Martin Luther King's work to improve society through the Civil Rights Movement.
- Dr. Carol Swain, (black) professor of political science and law at Vanderbilt University said, "Critical Race Theory's purpose is to divide the world into white oppressors victims."
- CRT Supports Black Lives Matter and its Marxist ideology.

Terminology used by those who support CRT- equity, social justice, diversity and inclusion, culturally responsive teaching, white supremacy, white fragility, unconscious bias, oppressor, oppressed, white traitors and white abolition,.

What can we do? Speak Up! Inform your family, neighbors and friends!

Refuse to accept it! Stop this movement now! Don't be bullied into thinking you're racist. Do not allow this indoctrination of our children. Call school board members and superintendent Call Pennsylvania legislatures.

Arkansas, Texas, Oklahoma, West VA, Missouri, Florida and Idaho have proposed bans on teaching it. Tennessee passed legislation on May 5 to ban the teaching of it. Idaho signed HB 377 into law last week- objective to prevent discrimination and protect intellectual freedom. The law explains the principles of CRT "exacerbates and inflames divisions on the basis of sex, race, ethnicity, religion, color, national origin, or other criteria in ways contrary to the unity of our nation and well being of the state of Idaho and its citizens."

Other lawsuits are being filed against school districts based on violation of the First Amendment (which protects citizens from compelled speech),the Fourteenth Amendment (which provides equal protection under the law), and the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (which prohibits institutions from discriminating on the basis of race.). CRT violates many of KASD policies

President Trump issued an order banning critical race theory based training programs in federal government. Biden's first day in office- he reversed it!

Every individual should be treated equally under the law and no one should be compelled to believe something just because someone else.

Critical Race Theory will be proven to be unconstitutional!
